Shakambhari Matha Alankaram & Puja

Friday July 24th, 2026
6:00 PM onwards

In Hinduism, goddess Shakambhari (Sanskrit: शाकम्भरी) is an incarnation of Parvati. Her name means "The One who nourished mankind with fruits and vegetables". It is said that in the end of a hundred-year lasting famine, the supreme Paramashakti incarnated as Shatakshi - Shakambhari and gave food to the starving.

In the Devi Mahatmya it is mentioned that Goddess Shakti appeared as Shakambhari Matha after a period of hundred years of drought. All the plants had died and there was nothing to eat. Shakambhari Matha brought forth from her body fruits, flowers, vegetables and herbs to suffice the hunger of the people.

On July 25th, 2026 we are adorning Kanchi Kamakshi Matha/ Lalitha Matha as Shakambhari Matha.

If you would like to sponsor for vegetables, you can either sign up to bring one of the below list of vegetables or sponsor $51 at front desk.
