Sri Raja Shyamala Navaratri Celebrations

Monday January 19th, 2026 – Tuesday January 27th, 2026

Shyamala Navarathri or Matangi Navarathri is one of the most auspicious nine days and nights starting from Shukla Paksha Prathama of Magha month till Navami.

Matangi shaktis represent the different powers of knowledge, arts, enchantment and influential forces that contain enormous energy to attract and enchant the three worlds and are worshipped to make one's own upasana conducive and seamless. Each of these devatas have their own mantra, yantra, upasana procedures taught in Tantra shastra, that provide innumerable potencies to the upasakas for the benefit of core Srividya upasana to attain eternal abode of Shiva and Shakti.

Following nine forms of Goddess Matangi are worshipped in nine consecutive days

Daily Schedule for All Days

6:00 AM: Kakad Aarti

7:00 AM: Baba Abhishekam

8:00 AM: Durga Sapthasathi

6:30 PM : Abhishekam to Sri Chakaram followed by Lalitha Sahasranama

Parayanam and Kumkumarchana

8:00 PM: Mataji Aarti

Day 01 : Monday January 19th, 2026

RajaShyamala (Raja Matangi)

07:00 AM : Ganapathi Puja, Kalasa Stapanam,

10:00 AM : Abhishekam to Panchamukha Paramasiva
followed by Archana, Aarti & Mantrapushpam

Sri Rajashyamala, also called Rajamatangi, Shyamala and Mantrini is the personification of divine intelligence of the primordial Goddess Sri Lalitha Tripurasundari. Rajamatangi is the empress of Vashikarana, Sammohana and Akarshana Shaktis of this cosmic manifestation.

Day 2 : Tuesday January 20th, 2026

Laghu Shyamala

10:00 AM : Abhishekam to Lord Hanuman followed by Hanuman Chalisa Parayanam, Aarti and Mantrapushpam

Laghu Shyamala, also called Uchchishta Chandalini is the anga-vidya of Rajashyamala and Her prime minister. She incarnated as Goddess Meenakshi at the beginning of Kali yuga as the daughter of Pandiya King. She is a personification of all powers of Manmatha, the God of Love and much more.

She is the primary shakti of enchantment and She is accompanied by all the devatas in the form of Kanyas (young girls). She plays with Them eternally in Kadamba Vana blesses Her devotees with all prosperity, especially the ability to attract and enchant the three worlds.
