PARTIAL SOLAR ECLIPSE

Wednesday, Aug. 12th, 2026

Eclipse begins 1:07 pm – Eclipse ends 2:38 pm

05:45 AM : Kakad Aarti

7:00 AM : Baba Abhishekam

8:00 AM : Sarva Devatha Archana

Temple closes at 9AM and Reopens at 5:00 PM

Temple Darshan Timings:

Evening Hours: 5:30 PM – 8:30 PM

Religious Observance:

As per Hindu scriptures:

- The eclipse time is called “Punya Kala” (most sacred time).
- Any ‘Daana’ or ‘Punya – Karma’ done with full faith during the eclipse yields immense ‘Phala’.
- Snaana (Bath) is suggested at the beginning and end of the eclipse. During the eclipse, chanting of Mantra Japam and Tarpanam is suggested.
- Observing fasting is suggested during the eclipse.

Grahana Dosha (astrological affect of the eclipse):

- This eclipse will take place in ‘Aslesha Nakshatra’. Pushyami & Magha also affect.
- People who are born in ‘Karkataka & Simha Rashi’ and live in the eclipse-visible area are required to do remedies.
- GrahaNa Dosha indicates the ‘karma’ of our previous lives and insists that we do more Punya to avoid the negative effect

Dosha Parihaara (Remedies):

- Visiting the temple after the eclipse and performing Navagraha Puja – Surya & Rahu Archana.
- Chanting Aditya Hrudayam, Navagraha Stotram.
- Daana of Wheat or Sesame seeds or Urad Dal to a Vedic priest.
- Rudrabhishekam.
- Shiva Panchakshari or Narasimha Mantra Japam.
